The conditions for participation will be decided by the organizer. The WRRC-New- Judging-System must be used.

3.2 Registration

3.2.1 Each dancer must be registered via the relevant national association using WRRC-Registration-System.

3.2.2 Dancers may only take part in competitions if they are registered with the WRRC, have paid the annual registration fee specified in the Fee-Scale, along with required Anti-Doping Documents having been sent over the WRRC-Registration System.

3.2.3 Minimum required fields for WRRC registration are:

3.2.3.1 First names;

3.2.3.2 Family names;

3.2.3.3 Date of birth and;

3.2.3.4 Sex.

3.2.3.5 A copy of personal document is required in order to confirm the identity and data of each person.

3.3 Competitors for World, Continental and Subcontinental Championships shall be selected exclusively by the national associations of the WRRC. The national associations should ensure the competition organizer is informed of their selections and that the appropriate registrations are made on the WRRC website.

3.4 Closing date for entries is strictly 21 days prior to the tournament. In the exceptional case of a later entry, a Late-Announcement-Fee, specified in the Fee- Scale, will be charged by WRRC.

3.4.1 Closing date for World Cup Final (WCF) is three days after the last World Cup in respective category when such has been organized less than 21 days before the WCF.

3.5 Once nominated each participant is obliged to enter the competition and pay the relevant fees, unless they cancel at least 24 hours prior to the start of the tournament.

3.6 The Organizer shall be entitled to charge a lump sum, specified in the Fee-Scale, for his own expenses for every nominated participant absent without excuse, except in proven cases of emergency such as illness or accident.

All invoices will be issued to the relevant national association.

3.7 Before the start of the tournament the start-book or license of each competitor must to be submitted to the tournament office.

3.8 Due to the specific way in which WRRRC tournaments are held, all participants, including formations and seeded dancers, must be present one hour prior to the beginning of the event and checked in by the registration office.

3.9 Participants of Rock'n'Roll Main-Class Free and Contact Styles, and Rock'n'Roll Formations Main-Class competitions must enter their acrobatic figure-programs into the WRRC-Acrobatic-Figure-Registration System.

3.9.1 The deadline for entering their acrobatic figure-programs is 24 hours before the competition starts.

3.10 Participants of Rock'n'Roll Main-Class Free and Contact Styles, Couple Dance Show, Juniors, Juveniles, children and all Rock'n'Roll Formations competitions shall be responsible for the choice of music complying with the WRRRC standards in areas such as duration and speed. The nomination, including the confirmed choice of music for the final- round, must be submitted to the WRRC-Registration-System before closing date for entries of the tournament where they want to use the music.

3.11 Any vulgar (example: showing the tongue during dance), sexual or violent gestures are forbidden during the dance performance in all disciplines.

3.12 Couples must dance within the given floor space and not in front of the other couple.

3.13 Each participant is individually responsible for taking out accident insurance. The promoter or Organizer of a tournament shall not be held liable for any sporting accidents whatsoever.

3.14 It is up to each participant to take out travel insurance in order to prevent losses in the case of the cancellation of a tournament. WRRC does not accept any liability for incurred costs in case of a tournament cancellation.

3.15 If tournaments or parts thereof are transmitted by television, any other media, or are recorded for television or any other media, it shall be established in the announcement that the participants, by taking part in the event, agree to waive any remuneration resulting from the television or any other media transmission.

3.16 The representative of the Medical Commission can exclude participants from the tournament for medical reasons.

4 AUTHORIZATIONS OF TOURNAMENTS

4.1 All international Tournaments in compliance with 1.3 shall be awarded by the WRRRC and a written contract between WRRRC and the local promoter or Organizer will be made.

Applications for all World-and Continental Championships must be received by the WRRRC-Office at least one year before the tournament takes place. Applications for all other international Tournaments must be received by the WRRRC-Office at least nine months before the tournament takes place.

Each respective national association must give prior approval to each application. All applications must be sent on official WRRRC tournament application form.

4.2 Upon the authorization of the tournament the Organizer shall receive a contract and all relevant instructions and materials for the tournament,

4.3 A tournament may only be advertised in public after the conclusion of the Organizing Contract. A tournament may be advertised before this authorization only by the WRRRC-Presidium. Refusal to authorize a tournament shall not justify any claims for compensation against the WRRRC or its officials.

4.4 The Organizer shall pay announcement fees, specified in the Fee-Scale, to the WRRRC for all international Tournaments in compliance with 1.3

4.5 The WRRRC may demand a security deposit for payments to be made by the Organizer, such as Tournament-Fees, expenses, as well as payments to be paid in relation to the Advertising and Television Rules.

4.6 The WRRRC shall not accept any liability whatsoever during tournaments or other events organized in its name.

4.7 The WRRRC is entitled to award advertising and television rights for international championships; this right is governed by the Organizing Contract and the Advertising and Television Rules.

4.8 The WRRRC can request that organizer provides special services based on obligations with potential WRRRC Sponsor. In such cases no extra financial obligations may be imposed on the organizer.

5 COMPETITION ORGANIZATION

5.1 OBLIGATION OF THE ORGANIZER

All obligations and procedures of the organizer are defined in the document

AR_0005 – Organisation of WRRC tournaments

5.2 CLASSIFICATION OF THE ROUNDS

5.2.1 General description

Classification of the rounds describes the number of couples/Formations performing on dance floor on the same time and the number of couples/Formations promoted to the next round.

The detailed classification is described in the document

SR_0004 – Classification of the rounds

5.2.1 Exceptions

For special events (e.g. multisport games, World Cup final or similar), WRRC Presidium can define different classification of the rounds. All member federations and possible participants must be informed about such exception at least 3 months before the event.

5.3 OTHER RULES

5.3.1 The coach of a couple, or max. two coaches of a formation must be given the possibility to sit or stay in front of the performing couple or formation guaranteeing indivisibility.

5.3.2 The chosen piece of music must either be part of the approved WRRC-CD or be individually approved by WRRC.

5.3.2.1 All music for Boogie Woogie competitions will be exclusively provided by WRRC- Office.

6 WRRC–SUPERVISOR – WRRC OBSERVER

6.1 WRRC–SUPERVISOR

6.1.1 The WRRC-Supervisor is a member of the WRRC-Presidium or will be appointed by the WRRC-Presidium, if no Presidium-Member is available.

6.1.2 The WRRC-Presidium shall appoint a WRRC-Supervisor for all WRRC-Championships and World-Cups included within 1.3.1 and 1.3.2

If circumstances demand, the WRRC-Presidium may also appoint a WRRC- Supervisor for any other WRRC tournament.

6.1.3 The WRRC–Supervisor shall apply all the means available to him (see supplement “Duties of the Officials”)

6.1.4 In order to reach the goals mentioned in 5 the WRRC-Supervisor may do the following:

6.1.4.1 Arrive a day before at 07.00 PM at the latest and check everything together with the organizer, using the official Competition-Check-List, which is a part of the Tournament-Package.

6.1.4.2 Interrupt or stop the tournament until his/her demands are met.

6.1.4.3 Submit a report to the WRRC-Presidium and propose sanctions.

6.1.4.4 Exclude participants and officials from the tournament in case of improper conduct and behavior harming the confederation.

6.1.5 When setting sanctions in relation to clause 6.1.4, the WRRC-Supervisor shall base his actions upon the financial and organizational circumstances of the Organizer. He/she shall take special care that the interests of the Organizer and the spectators are guarded. He/she shall consult the judges and the Organizer before setting sanctions.

6.1.6 The WRRC-Supervisor must inform all WRRC-Judges and the WRRC-Observer about any competition details before the tournament starts. WRRC-Judges must be present at least one hour before the competition starts; failure to do so incurs a warning on the first occasion and a suspension of their international judging license on a second occasion. In addition, any judge failing to arrive at least one hour before the competition starts must pay a fine, equivalent to their day expenses, to the WRRC at the tournament where they are judging.

6.1.7 The WRRC-Supervisor will have a short meeting after the competition with all WRRC-Judges and the WRRC-Observer to discuss any important events that occurred within the competition.

6.2 WRRC-OBSERVER

6.2.1 The WRRC-Observer must be at least 18 years old and show a mature personality, being known and respected among the WRRC officials and active participants who are familiar with the WRRC-Statutes, the WRRC-Rules and decisions, other WRRC provisions and the scoring directives.

The WRRC-Observer must be able to make decisions quickly and balance which measures are required under the circumstances.

6.2.2 WRRC-Observer-License

6.2.2.1 There are special WRRC-Observer for

6.2.2.1.1 Rock'n'Roll

6.2.2.1.2 Boogie-Woogie

6.2.2.2 The license for Observer is awarded for a period of 2 years

6.2.2.3 If a WRRC-Observer doesn't pass a

6.2.2.3.1 a webinar three times a year,

6.2.2.3.2 a one-day WRRRC-Observer-Training-Course within 2 years and
6.2.2.3.3 a WRRRC-Observer-Examination every four year, he will be kept as a “Standby WRRC-Observer” for one year. If the license is not being renewed within that year it shall be withdrawn.

6.2.2.4 If a WRRC-Observer violates WRRC rules or the “Judges’ Code of Conduct and Standards of Ethics” or is proven to have discriminated unfairly for or against one or more couples, then the WRRC-Presidium shall be entitled to withdraw the WRRC-Observer-License of that WRRC-Observer.

6.2.3 The WRRC-Presidium shall appoint a WRRC-Observer for all WRRC-competitions included within 1.3.1. and 1.3.2

For Acrobatic Rock’n’Roll Main Classes, couple Dance Show, Juniors, Juveniles and Children Competitions the WRRC-Presidium shall appoint 2 WRRC-Observers.

6.2.4 The WRRC-Observer has to supervise participants while they dance and ensure that all WRRC-Regulations are being met (see supplement “Duties of the Officials”).

6.2.5 The WRRC-Observer may impose penalties on those violating WRRC-Regulations and will award give colored cards to indicate their decision.

6.2.5.1 Yellow and Red-Card

The Yellow-Card is shown as a warning for breach of rules.

6.2.5.1.1 If an additional Yellow-Card needs to be shown at any time during the same competition, it amounts to a Red-Card where points are deducted for the respective round.

6.2.5.2 In case of Red-Card, 30 pts are deducted to the total score of couple or formation who received it. The final-result of the round will be published after the clarification of an eventual protest.

6.2.5.2.1 In finals, only Red Cards are shown.

6.2.5.3 Yellow or Red Cards will not be applicable beyond any given competition.

6.2.5.4 During tournaments protests for Red Cards may only be submitted to the WRRC Supervisor immediately after the round concerned and only by an official of the nation.

6.2.5.4.1 Later protests shall not be considered.

6.2.5.4.2 A Protest-Fee according to the Fee-Scale will have to be paid. In case of the protest being acknowledged the Protest-Fee shall be returned.

7 WRRC-JUDGES:

7.1 Training and further training of WRRC-Judges

7.1.1 A WRRC-Judge must be nominated for the examination directly from his national federation.

7.1.1.1 Nominees are expected to be mature and respected persons of a minimum age of 18 years, to be experienced and judging at least two national competitions per year in their respective division.

7.1.1.2 WRRC-Judge-Examinations are guided by a member of the WRRC-Presidium and only after having finished a training course of at least two days.

7.1.1.3 Sufficient knowledge of English is required.

7.2 WRRC-Judge License

7.2.1 There are special WRRC-Judges for

7.2.1.1 Rock'n'Roll

7.2.1.2 Boogie Woogie

7.2.2 The license for Judges is awarded for a period of 2 years.

7.2.3 If a WRRC-Judge doesn't pass a

7.2.3.1 a webinar three times a year;

7.2.3.2 a one-day WRRC-Judge-Training-Course within 2 years and;

7.2.3.3 a WRRC-Judge-Examination every four year.

he will be kept as a "Standby WRRC-Judge" for one year. If the license is not being renewed within that year it shall be withdrawn.

7.2.4 If a WRRC-Judge violates WRRC rules or the "Judges' Code of Conduct and Standards of Ethics" or is proven to have discriminated unfairly for or against one or more couples, then the WRRC-Presidium shall be entitled to withdraw the WRRC-Judge-License of that WRRC-Judge.

7.3 Selection of WRRC-Judges

7.3.1 Only National Federations, which have implemented the appropriate WRRC-Judging-System, are entitled to nominate WRRC-Judges for international competitions of the respective division.

7.3.2 In all World and Continental championships and in all Rock'n'Roll Main-Class Free and Contact Styles competitions included within 1.3.1 a minimum of 7 International WRRC-Judges from 7 different national associations shall judge.

7.3.2.1 Exception: in all World and Continental Championships for Boogie Juniors and Seniors, all Junior-Formations, World-Cups and all other competitions included within 1.3.2 a minimum of 5 International WRRC-Judges from 5 different national associations are required.

7.3.2.2 For combined tournaments with more than two competitions, the WRRRC- Presidium can nominate additional judges.

7.3.3 The selection of WRRRC-Judges for World and Continental Championships Rock'n'Roll Main Class Free Style and Boogie Woogie Main Class, and for World Cup Final, is made by the WRRRC-Presidium.

7.3.4 For World Cups included within 1.3.2 the selection is made by the Sport Director who specifies which membership associations should send a WRRRC-Judge to the tournament.

7.3.4.1 If the request to nominate a WRRRC-Judge is not complied with by the national association within 6 weeks, the Sport Director shall be entitled to select a suitable WRRRC-Judge.

7.3.4.2 The membership association which was selected to send a WRRRC-Judge to an international tournament with more than one competition is entitled to send a second WRRC-Judge at its own expense. (Exception: World and Continental Championships)

7.3.4.2.1 The Sport-Director shall be responsible for assigning the tasks to the second WRRC-Judge in the respective competition.

7.3.5 For Subcontinental-Championships the WRRC member federations of the Subcontinent can select Supervisor, Observers and WRRC-Judges himself.

7.3.6 For International Open the organizer can select Supervisor, Observers and WRRC-Judges himself.

7.3.7 WRRC-Judges who dance actively are not permitted to judge in international championships or tournaments.

7.3.8 During a tournament it is not permitted to change the WRRC-Judge within a round.

7.4 Judging-Regulations and tasks of WRRC-Supervisors, WRRC-Observers and WRRC-Judges

7.4.1 The evaluation and calculation System for the determination of tournament results is regulated in the New Judging System (see NJS).

7.4.2 Simplified Judging

If tournaments provide rounds in which more than 3 couples have to be judged at the same time then can be allocated in these rounds 0-40 points per couple.

7.4.3 The formation can reach maximal score of points only if maximal number of dancers (according to the table in relevant Division-Rules) are dancing on the dancefloor. For each missing dancer, the observer will deduct 1 point from the overall calculated score of the formation.

Example: In Formation Main Class 4 couples (8 dancers) are on the dance-floor. Maximal number of dancers is 12 (6 couples). In this case, the observer will deduct 4 points (for two couples).

7.4.4 All tasks and duties of WRRC-Supervisors, WRRC-Observers and WRRC-Judges are described in the Judges Code of Conduct and Standards of Ethics and in the supplement “Duties of the Officials”).

7.4.5 The WRRC-Judges, Observer and Supervisors must be at the Organizer’s disposal at least two hours before the start of the event.

8 RANKINGS

8.1 Results from all World Cup’s and International Open Rock’n’Roll Main-Class Free and Contact Styles, Juniors, Juveniles, Children and Boogie-Woogie Main-Class, Juniors and Seniors are considered in international rankings.

8.1.1 Fluent Ranking lists: Points gained within a tournament are considered in rankings other a period of one calendar year. Only the best three results from the four-last official WRRC competitions are accounted, maximum one year back. If less than four competitions in a year took place, all of them accounted.

8.1.2 World Cup Ranking lists: Points gained within a particular tournament are taken into account in rankings for the competitions held on respective calendar year. The worst results of each couple may not be considered in the World Cup rankings.

8.1.3 On January 1st each year the World Cup ranking lists are set to 0.

8.1.4 All ranking points shall be null and void if partners are changed.

8.1.5 The ranking will be recalculated after each ranking competition and at the beginning of each month.

9 VIOLATIONS OF THE TOURNAMENT RULES - SANCTIONS

9.1 The WRRC-Presidium may impose disciplinary action upon national associations, promoters, Organizers, participants, and officials for the following reasons:

9.1.1 Violations of the Tournament Rules.

9.1.2 Disregard of instructions from the WRRC Supervisors, WRRC-Observers or the tournament manager.

9.1.3 Unexcused absence from a tournament after registration or promised participation.

9.1.4 Abuse of a champion's title or similar action.

9.1.5 Undisciplined conduct or unsporting behavior harmful to the confederation. E.g. breach of the "Judges' Code of Conduct and Standards of Ethics"

9.2 The WRRC-Presidium may impose the following disciplinary action:

9.2.1 Cancellation of expenses;

9.2.2 Fine;

9.2.3 Ban for one or several tournaments or for a certain period;

9.2.4 Recall a title.

9.3 The person or organization affected must be given the opportunity of a defense and must be notified in writing of the decision and relevant reasoning by the WRRC-Presidium.

9.4 The WRRC-Supervisor may announce disqualifications during a tournament for the following reasons:

9.4.1 If a participant fails to appear on the dance floor after a second call.

9.4.2 Upon proof of drug or alcohol abuse.

9.4.3 If a participant demonstrates undisciplined or unsporting conduct or behavior harmful to the confederation.

9.5 Doping is forbidden. The currently valid Anti-Doping Code of the International Dance Sport Federation (WDSF) is applicable in all WRRC-Tournaments included within section 1.2 of these Tournament Rules.

9.6 Participants of a tournament may launch a protest against decisions of a WRRRC Supervisor, at the WRRRC-Presidium within 14 days.

9.6.1 The person affected is entitled to appeal against the decision of the WRRC-Presidium within 14 days.

9.6.1.1 The WRRC-General-Meeting shall deal with such appeal. It will make the final decision.

10 EXCEPTIONS

10.1 The WRRC-Presidium may make exceptions to the Tournament Rules.

10.2 The Organizer shall be notified of such exceptions when the contract is being made and the tournament participants shall be informed.

This booklet may not be reproduced or translated in whole or in part in any manner without the permission of The World Rock'n'Roll Confederation Presidium.
